Welcome/Introductions/Agenda Review

Commission Chair Erin Saberi called the meeting to order at 6:05pm. Quorum was established.

Small introduction from Nations Finest (used to be called Veteran’s Resource Center), Val (Assistant Site Director) focuses on unhoused veterans for men and women. Helps with rapid rehousing and homeless prevention. Provides some help with move in costs. One grant is Grant Per Diem (GPD) – predominantly male has to have history of mental health or substance use. Helps with employment, income, medical, substance use, education. Program for women – offsite location for female identifying and children and females escaping domestic violence. Case management services are provided at the women’s home or at this facility. For veterans that have VA services, they connect to the VA and if not, they link them to coverage. They can be housed for a year, used to be 2 years. For more information, Nationsfinest.com

Kyla Xiong, Development Associate from Loaves and Fishes stated that they work with families and provides services to families.

BYLAWS OF THE SACRAMENTO COUNTY COMMISSION ON THE STATUS OF WOMEN AND GIRLS

Article I. Establishment of the Commission

The Board of Supervisors by Resolution established the Sacramento County Commission for the Status of Women and Girls (herein referred to as "the Commission") 2020-0810, dated December 15, 2020. Through this Resolution, the Board directed the Commission to adopt bylaws consistent with the recommendations of Blue Ribbon Commission on the Establishment of a Sacramento County Women's Commission that sets forth the membership, election of officers (including powers and duties), schedule and rules governing meetings and agendas, quorum requirements, committees and task forces, rules governing bylaw amendments, the rules of order, and conflict-of-interest reporting requirements.

The Commission adopted the following bylaws on July 25, 2023.

Article II. Mission

The mission of the Commission is to improve the social welfare, health, economic status, and overall quality of life for women and girls in Sacramento County.

Article III. Purpose

The Commission's purpose includes, but is not limited to:

- Community education and advisement to the Sacramento County Board of Supervisors, and other entities as necessary, on issues relating to the social and economic conditions and wellbeing of women and girls in the county.
- Raising awareness of women's issues and celebrating the achievements of local deserving women.
- Championing opportunities for women and girls.
- Recommending policy and legislative solutions at the city, county, state and federal level. Areas of focus will include, but are not limited to socio-economic conditions, workplace issues, social treatment of gender issues, and health and safety for women and girls.
- Serving as a resource to advance gender equity, justice, and wellbeing for all women and girls, with particular attention to increasing economic opportunities and representing marginalized and traditionally underserved communities.
- Holding public hearings, publishing reports, collecting data, conveying and recommending programs, policies, and legislation to promote and ensure equal rights.
- Reflecting the unique diversity of Sacramento County and addressing the barriers to equity that exist within specific communities of women and girls.

Article IV. Powers and Duties

BYLAWS OF THE SACRAMENTO COUNTY COMMISSION ON THE STATUS OF WOMEN AND GIRLS

The Commission's powers and duties include, but are not limited to:

- Establishing and upholding bylaws by which to operate; and amending such bylaws, as needed. Bylaws may be amended by a quorum of the Commissioners at any meeting after proper notice.

- Organizing and adopting rules for Commission and committee meetings consistent with the bylaws and Brown Act.

- Creating and disbanding standing and/or ad hoc committees at any time, to further the work of the Commission.

- Organizing and adopting rules for recruitment of members of the Commission consistent with Sacramento County's advisory board principles and policies.

- Subject to approval of the County Administrator, requesting of any county department information, services, facilities and other assistance for the purposes of furthering the objectives of the Commission.

- Providing regular written or verbal reports to the Board of Supervisors concerning its operations and/or areas of focus.

- Performing other duties consistent with the purposes of the Commission, such as community engagement and education on women's issues.

Article V. Membership

Members shall be referred to as "Commissioners" and shall serve on a voluntary basis, without compensation.

Section A. Seats, Application. and Appointment

1. The Commission shall comprise fifteen (15) Commissioners reflecting a cross-section of the diverse communities of women within Sacramento County, shall reside and/or work in Sacramento County, be inclusive of communities outside the urban core of the City of Sacramento, and be appointed and/or ratified by the Board of Supervisors:
 - Five (5) Commissioners representing each of the County's five (5) supervisorial districts, appointed by each Supervisor from that district.
 - Three (3) youth Commissioners (ages 14-21) - one (1) of whom shall hold a seat on and be appointed by the Sacramento County Youth Commission and ratified by the Board of Supervisors; the other two appointed by the Board of Supervisors; and
 - Seven (7) at-large Commissioners recommended by "The Friends of the Sacramento Commission on the Status of Women and Girls" (an affiliate 501(c)(3) corporation), who shall be responsible for reviewing applications and recommending the candidates for approval by the Commission. Commission-approved candidates will be forwarded to the Board of Supervisors for ratification.
2. Representatives of the Commission may participate in candidates' interviews.
